Meet Your Board!

Hi everyone. My name is Mickey Miller and I'm on the Emmaus board. My position is general agape. I'm the person who takes care of the prayer vigils and get agape from other Emmaus communities.

I was born and raised in Oklahoma City, although I have lived in 6 different states in my adulthood. I am a widow and have 3 children, 2 boys and 1 girl. They have blessed me with 5 granddaughters. My boys live in South Carolina, and my daughter lives in Yukon. I currently live in Willow Creek in OKC. My home church is New Hope UMC on Council Road. Come see us! New Hope is a church of service with many, many opportunities to give of yourself. One of the projects that I am involved with is the Exodus House in Oklahoma City.

I had never heard of Emmaus before joining New Hope. I just happened to overhear some of the members talking about it. I started asking questions, and ended up asking a friend to sponsor me for the weekend. I had no idea what to expect. I really don't know how to tell you about my weekend. There was no "aha" moment. There was a small stream that picked up power and became a river which became an all encompassing ocean of love and knowledge. This has continued to grow in my everyday life and I hope I can continue to share the gifts I have received with many other pilgrims
